closeted with Supt. Byrnes for an hour.
During the morning twenty-five Police Captains had called upon and been in consultation with Supt. Byrnes.
Bupt. Byrnes said he called the Captains to talk about the plan of the police devoting one-half of 1 per cent.
of their salaries to the poor of the city.
The Captains received the matter favorably, Mr. Byrnes said, and would talk to the men.
If the police agree to this plan the sum contributed for charity will amount to about $2,000 a month.

The Consolidation League, of Brooklyn, is opposed to the plan suggested in the bill drawn up by the New York Consolidated Commission to be preented to the Legislature for merging the two cities into the Greater New York, and has drawn up a new bill embodying its views.

The objection of the Brooklyn consolidators to the New York scheme is that the latter seeks to annex too much territory, and that Brooklyn does not secure the rights to which they think she is entitled.

At a meeting held in Brooklyn last evening, at which Senators-elect Bradley and Beynolds and several Assemblymen were present, resolutions were passed favoring a vote upon consolidation only by electors in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, and the draft of the new bill was unanimously adopted.

Bloody Water Oozed Out Constantly. No Peace Day or Night. Doctors Failed. Cured by Cuticura.

My child's disease, which was the worst kind of Evening, started on one cheek like a ringworm. It spread and itched so the poor little fellow had no peace night or day. Then it started on the other cheek and chin, and all the started on the other cheek and chin, and all the started on the other cheek and chin, and all the started on the other cheek and chin, and bloody water coved out constantly. It is sufferings were terrible I know, although he was but six months old and could not tell how he suffered. I field his hamis so that he would not seratch, then he would rib his poor little cheeks on his little shoulders for level the lutense tellouiz. I had as good a doctor as was in Philadelphia, but he failed to refleve him. I read of the Cuticusa Rensentes and a doctor as was in Philadelphia, but he failed to refleve him. I read of the Cuticusa Rensentes, and I from that on he improved and soon was entirely curred. I would like any one suffering from this ferrible disease to see my boy, who is in his twelfth year now. He had crawled beneath her bed when his movements partially aroused the Mother Superior, and he fell into a deep slumber, during which his loud snoring the burglar alarm and officers responded.

A search of the room revealed the man under the bed fast asleep.

He was dragged out and taken to the West Thirtieth street station, where he may be a street, an upholsterer.

In Jefferson Market Court to-day Policeman Reid, of the Terderloin Precinct, said there was no complainant in court. He told how Hackman was found beneath the bed in his stocking feet and of his arrest.

The police say that Hackman must have entered the house through a basement window, and, after leaving his boots in the hall, made his way upstairs to the Mother Superior's room. The ponce refused to divulge the latter's name.
